Mysteries from the Archives (part X)

Posted on February 13, 2017 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, everyone!

This is part 10 of our Mysteries from the Archives posts. While I have no doubt that there will be more mysteries in the future, this is the last of the big push to solve mysteries that have turned up in the course of our Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) grant funded project. As you know, the CLIR project wrapped up at the end of December and the findings aids are all searchable online! Even though the grant project has ended, the collections are still active so keep sending your materials to the library! Here are the guidelines for submitting materials.

If you can help to provide any information about any of these photos, please email jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you!

Mysteries from the Archives (part VII)

Posted on August 9, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, Everyone!

It's time for another Mystery from the Archives! This latest mystery came hidden within a stack of music. The piece is titled "Rondino for carillon" but the composer and/or arranger is not identified. Comparison to several pieces of music with similar titles have yielded no matches.

If you can help to provide any information about this piece of music, please email me at jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you!

Oh Look, There's a Bell!

Posted on June 23, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

Thank you, everyone for a wonderful 2016 GCNA Congress! And kudos to Ellen Dickinson and the members of the Yale Guild on a job well done!

For those you who were not able to make it to Connecticut, we wanted to share some of the information that was presented about the GCNA Archives and the Anton Brees Carillon Library at Bok Tower Gardens.

About the Anton Brees Carillon Library

- 1,500+ volumes of carillon & related literature
- 3,000+ musical scores
- 1,600+ audio & video recordings (a portion are being digitized!)
- Collections of prominent carillonneurs
- Institutional archives
- ABCL vertical files
- Archives of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America (GCNA)

About the ABCL Vertical Files

Materials on North American & foreign instruments, individuals, & bell foundries

- 4 file cabinets and 30 boxes +++
- Instruments
 - North America
 - 306 USA (42 states)
 - 17 Canada
 - Foreign
 - 25 countries
 - ~340 instruments
 - 11 traveling instruments
- Individuals
- Foundries

About the GCNA Archives

5 filing cabinets +++

- Congress packets, minutes, etc.
- Carillonneur exams
- Membership rosters
- Correspondence
- Publications: Bulletin, Carillon News, music
- News articles

- Franco Composition Competition
- Barnes Scholarships
- Heritage Music Projects
- Photographs

In 2013, we received a “Cataloging Hidden Collections” grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR)! Huge shout out to Joy Banks for writing and receiving this grant!!! Other recipients in our award year included Princeton University, Columbia University, George Eastman House (Kodak), and the Yellowstone Park Foundation.

Council on Library & Information Resources (CLIR) Project

Cataloging the Hidden Collections of the Anton Brees Carillon Library

- Process ABCL Vertical Files
- Process GCNA Archives
- 80+ linear feet and approximately 40 boxes +++
- No existing catalog, finding aids, or tools for finding aid creation

CLIR Project

- What does “process” mean?
- ABCL Vertical Files vs. GCNA Archives

ABCL Vertical Files	GCNA Archives
Materials related to a particular instrument, individual, or foundry	Materials related to the activities of the GCNA

- ABCL files include:
traditional carillons, non-traditional carillons, chimes, individuals, foundries
- Does not include:
single/multiple bells, rings, peals, “bong-a-trons”

Processing is the physical sorting and organization of the materials in a consistent and systematic manner. That means that every piece of paper in these file cabinets and boxes has passed through our hands multiple times in order to ensure it is in the proper place.

CLIR Project – Results!

How to Access the Materials

To access library materials such as books, scores, recordings, etc., please view the ABCL Library Catalog!

To access the finding aids, which detail information in the vertical files, the GCNA archives, and digitized papers, photographs, etc., please view Bok Tower Gardens Digital Collections!

Please call or email library@boktower.org with questions and inquiries and don't forget to continue sending in your materials! Click here for the Guidelines for Submitting Materials.

John Widmann says:

#41 is McDonogh School in Owings Mills, MD, where a new 48 bell Petit and Fritsen carillon (Based on a D in the middle octave connected to C on the keyboard, transposing up a 2nd, missing the first semitone) replaced a previous chime in the tower in 1978.

Andrea McCrady says:

February 13, 2017 at 1:02 pm

#42 is Soldiers' Tower at the University of Toronto. I'll send you another photo for confirmation.

Carol Jickling Lens says:

February 13, 2017 at 2:29 pm

I think 42 could be Christ Church Cranbrook.

Roy Lee says:

February 13, 2017 at 6:26 pm

#42 is Soldiers' Tower at the University of Toronto. First photo shows the north face of the tower. Second photo was taken from the southeastern corner of the tower. (I'd love to know the approximate timing!)

Richard Strauss says:

#41 could be the James F. Akright's rosewood keyboard built for the Mears chime at Wesleyan Univ, Middletown, Connecticut. When Mears extended the original chime bells, Akright built this keyboard and a new bar transmission for the playing action. He also built a matching rosewood practice keyboard with tubular chimes. Present state of this work unknown to me.

See also <http://www.towerbells.org/data/CTMIDLWU.HTM> and <http://www.wesleyan.edu/bells/history/index.html>. Akright was primarily an organ builder but also did various carillon maintenance and renovation work for KU, Lincoln, Culver, and experimental keyboard design for Bok. A less-than-serious bio is at http://articles.baltimoresun.com/1992-10-14/news/1992288186_1_akright-pipe-organs-iron-railings.

Norman Bliss says:

February 13, 2017 at 9:32 pm

I think #44 is the baton keyboard made by Jim Akright in 1966 for the 16 bell Whitechapel chime at Wesleyan University, Middletown CT. It was retained when the instrument was enlarged to a carillon, but still lacks a pedalboard.

GCNA Archives	ABCL Vertical Files
Materials related to the activities of the GCNA	Materials related to a particular instrument, individual, or foundry

Who Should Submit Materials?

GCNA Archives: Those in elected or appointed positions that include administrative responsibility for the work they undertake including; Board Members, committee/subcommittee chairs, liaisons to other organizations, editors of publications

ABCL Vertical Files: Anyone! Especially an individual responsible for a particular instrument and/or who has done research on a particular instrument, foundry, or individual

What Types of Materials to Submit?

Send files that, in your estimation, have or are likely to have historical value to the GCNA, to the record of a particular instrument, or to the carillon art in general. Send 2 copies of primary documents, including born-digital files and essential secondary documents. For example, a program or recording of a performance is a primary resource, a history of or critique of the performance is a secondary resource. Having a program or recording autographed by the performer makes a nice artifact for the future.

Make sure your materials include: Who, When, and Where!

GCNA Archives	ABCL Vertical Files
Materials related to the activities of the GCNA: - Congress Packets (ie: scrapbooks & photos) - Congress Minutes and membership rosters - Committee Activities ie: carillonneur exams, Barnes Scholarship, Heritage music, etc. - Publications (Bulletin , Carillon News , music) - Professional concerns/discussions - News articles related to the GCNA - Photographs of GCNA events/activities - A/V recordings	Materials related to a particular instrument, individual, or foundry: - Programs - Correspondence - Construction/Restoration work - Ephemera - Blueprints - Bios - News articles - Photographs - A/V recordings

When to Submit Materials?

While there is no official timeline or time limit for submitting materials, it is recommended to create a “schedule” for yourself to encourage the habit of submitting materials regularly ie: at the end of a semester, year, or series season.

What Not to Submit:

Please do not send materials that are not carillon related or do not inform the history of an instrument, foundry, or individual with ties to the carillon community, or materials that are incomplete. For example, please do not send materials related to organs or bells which are single bells, a ring, peal, etc., a portion of a multi-page article, etc.

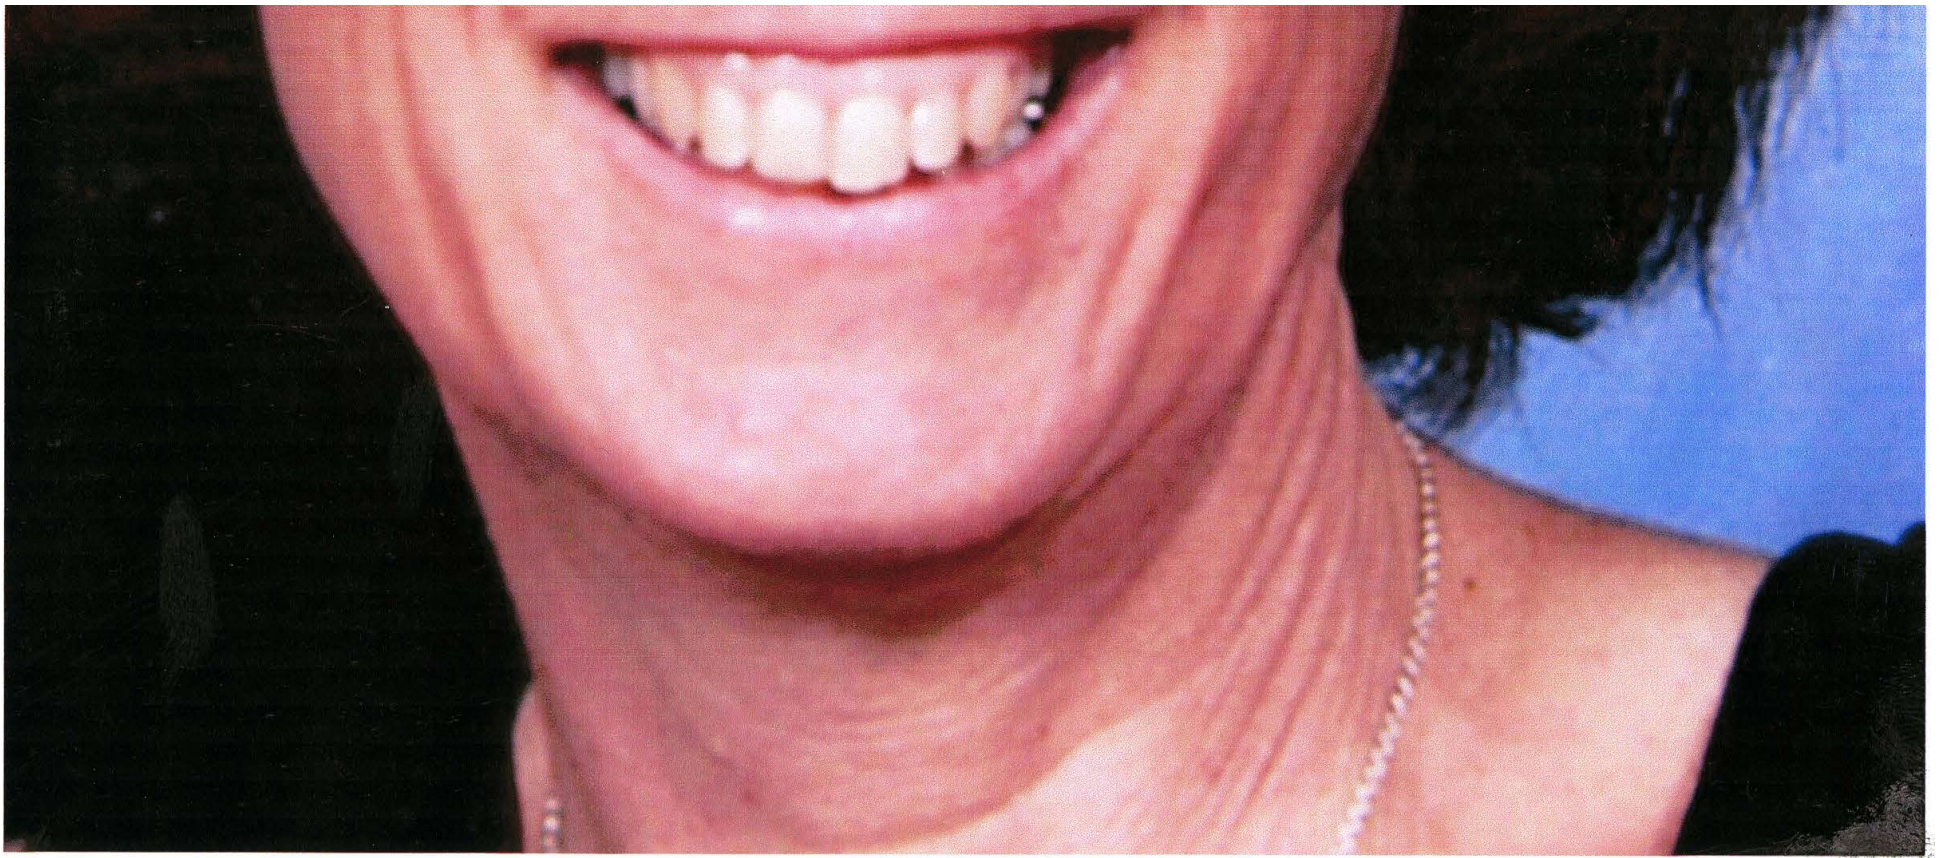

How to Submit Materials?

We encourage you to contact the library prior to submitting materials.
 Bok Tower Gardens / Attn: Library / 1151 Tower Blvd / Lake Wales, FL 33853

Mysteries from the Archives (part IX)

Posted on January 9, 2017 by Jaime Fogel

Happy New Year!! Thought that we'd ring in the new year with some more Mysteries from the Archives!

As always, if you can help to provide any information about any of these photos, please email jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you!

Mysteries (part VIII) – Solved

Posted on December 28, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

As ever, you guys impress me with your knowledge!

Thank you to everyone who responded with info about the mysteries! Especially John Widmann, Jim Saenger, Ed Arp, Luc Rombouts, Erv Mussman, Amy Brandau, Janet Tebbel, Carol Jickling Lens, Dave Hunsberger, and Rick Watson!

(apologies if I missed anyone, there were a lot of responses on this one! :-D)

#23: Gustave Cantelon

#24: Jef van Hoof, Prosper Verheyden, Henry de Coster, William Gorham Rice, Jef Denyn, Cyril Johnston, Staf Nees. The photo was taken 18 August 1931 at the Hotel de Ville/ Stadhuis in Mechelen, Belgium. This photo also appears in the book “Jubileumboek 1922-1972,” and a cropped version was printed in the GCNA Bulletin in 1997.

#25: The gentlemen with Kamiel LeFevere still remain unidentified

#26: Jeff Davis, John Agraz, Ronald Barnes & David Hunsberger, in the playing cabin at UC Berkeley, circa 1984-1990

#27: (standing, L to R) Richard von Grabow, Charles Sukup, Douglas Schenck, Charlene Nunnikoven (?), (seated) Erv Mussman, unidentified

#28-31: We believe are all taken at the Paccard Foundry. #30 Henri ? and Alfred Paccard

Mysteries from the Archives (part VIII)

Posted on December 20, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, everyone!

It's time for another round of Mysteries from the Archives! These latest mysteries come from the photo files – some group photos and some photos of foundries.

If you can help to provide any information about any of these photos, please email jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you! Wishing you and your families a wonderful holiday season!!

Mystery #23:

Identified as Jules van de Leine, but we don't have a record of someone by that name at Saint Quentin. The closest name we found was Jules Levent.

Fabulous Find: Centennial Chime

Posted on October 2, 2015 by Jaime Fogel

This fabulous find comes from the Centennial Exhibition which was held in Philadelphia in 1876 in honor of our country's 100th birthday! You can view it online as part of BTG's Digital Collections:

<http://boktowergardens.contentdm.oclc.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/p16755coll5/id/48>

This stereograph* is of the Centennial ... Continue reading →

Camera buffs capture sunrise atop carillon tower in Valley Forge, Pa.

Posted on January 21, 2014 by SallyHarwood

Most efforts to generate interest in and support of carillons relate to the music of the bells. At the National Park Service's Valley Forge Park, the carillon tower itself is the focus of an activity that carillonneurs might be able ... Continue reading →

Mysteries from the Archives (part VII)

Posted on August 9, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, Everyone!

It's time for another Mystery from the Archives! This latest mystery came hidden within a stack of music. The piece is titled "Rondino for carillon" but the composer and/or arranger is not identified. Comparison to several pieces of music with similar titles have yielded no matches.

If you can help to provide any information about this piece of music, please email me at jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you!

RONDINO for carillon

This image shows a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "RONDINO for carillon". The score is written on ten systems of five-line staves, each system containing a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The music is written in a single system, with various rhythmic values, accidentals, and phrasing slurs. The notation includes eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as "p" (piano) and "f" (forte). The score concludes with a double bar line and a key signature change to one sharp (F#).

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation, likely a piano score. The page contains 12 systems of music, each consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The notation includes various rhythmic values, accidentals, and phrasing slurs. A dynamic marking "Loco" is visible in the sixth system. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and wear.

Oh Look, There's a Bell!

Posted on June 23, 2016 by Jaime Fogel

Thank you, everyone for a wonderful 2016 GCNA Congress! And kudos to Ellen Dickinson and the members of the Yale Guild on a job well done!

For those you who were not able to make it to Connecticut, we wanted to share some of the information that was presented about the GCNA Archives and the Anton Brees Carillon Library at Bok Tower Gardens.

About the Anton Brees Carillon Library

- 1,500+ volumes of carillon & related literature
- 3,000+ musical scores
- 1,600+ audio & video recordings (a portion are being digitized!)
- Collections of prominent carillonneurs
- Institutional archives
- ABCL vertical files
- Archives of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America (GCNA)

In 2013, we received a “Cataloging Hidden Collections” grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR)! Huge shout out to Joy Banks for writing and receiving this grant!!! Other recipients in our award year included Princeton University, Columbia University, George Eastman House (Kodak), and the Yellowstone Park Foundation.

Council on Library & Information Resources (CLIR) Project

Cataloging the Hidden Collections of the Anton Brees Carillon Library

- Process ABCL Vertical Files
- Process GCNA Archives
- 80+ linear feet and approximately 40 boxes +++
- No existing catalog, finding aids, or tools for finding aid creation

CLIR Project

- What does “process” mean?
- ABCL Vertical Files vs. GCNA Archives

ABCL Vertical Files	GCNA Archives
Materials related to a particular instrument, individual, or foundry	Materials related to the activities of the GCNA

- ABCL files include:
traditional carillons, non-traditional carillons, chimes, individuals, foundries
- Does not include:
single/multiple bells, rings, peals, “bong-a-trons”

Processing is the physical sorting and organization of the materials in a consistent and systematic manner. That means that every piece of paper in these file cabinets and boxes has passed through our hands multiple times in order to ensure it is in the proper place.

How to Access the Materials

To access library materials such as books, scores, recordings, etc., please view the ABCL Library Catalog!

To access the finding aids, which detail information in the vertical files, the GCNA archives, and digitized papers, photographs, etc., please view Bok Tower Gardens Digital Collections!

Please call or email library@boktower.org with questions and inquiries and don't forget to continue sending in your materials! Click here for the Guidelines for Submitting Materials.

History is written by what gets left behind!

Fabulous Find: Centennial Chime

Posted on October 2, 2015 by Jaime Fogel

This fabulous find comes from the Centennial Exhibition which was held in Philadelphia in 1876 in honor of our country's 100th birthday!

You can view it online as part of BTG's Digital Collections:

<http://boktowergardens.contentdm.oclc.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/p16755coll5/id/48>

This stereograph* is of the Centennial Chime which was on display in the Machinery Hall of the Centennial Exhibition. It is a 13 bell chime and is the first known chime produced by the McShane Foundry of Maryland. It has since been moved and is now located at the Cathedral of the Incarnation in Garden City, NY.

The Free Library of Philadelphia has additional stereographs from the exhibition, including one showing the keyboard used to play the chime.

<https://libwww.freelibrary.org/CenCol/Details.cfm?ItemNo=c062168>

*A stereograph shows two nearly identical images side-by-side and when viewed through a stereoscope the image looks 3 dimensional.

Have a great day!

First, I wanted to update you that the last mystery that was shared we believe with 99% certainty is a single bell located at St. Mary's Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kingston, Ontario. Many thanks to Rick Watson for his help on this mystery! The nice folks at St. Mary's were grateful to have some information about their bell, as no one has even seen it in recent years due to the dangerous conditions to access it. The bell (which was cast by Petit & Fritsen and weighs approximately 4,700 pounds) is still in use by means of an electronic mechanism that is used to strike the hour, and for special occasions such as the election of a new pope.

Second, I wanted to also share another mystery/fabulous find! (yes – it is both a mystery and a fabulous find!) This one began, as they usually do, with sorting through materials in the course of our CLIR grant funded project. I came across this letter, which makes mention of film footage taken at the Taylor Bell Foundry.

Copy for Mr. P. Price

August 27, 1948

Mr. Frank Godfrey
John Taylor and Company
Loughborough, England

Dear Mr. Godfrey:

It was a pleasure to have your letter of the 19th and to know that you will be in this country in September. We do hope you will plan to stop in Ann Arbor. College does not begin until the 20th, and I believe Percival Price's first recital of the fall semester is on the 26th of September. He gives a recital twice a week at least and may increase this number to three a week. We are not quite certain about the schedule for the fall semester.

I do know the Dean of the College of Fine Arts at Lawrence, Kansas, namely, Donald M. Swarthout, and am only too happy to write him on your behalf.

I quite agree with you. I don't see what the good would be of a swinging bell on a low D. There is even a question in my mind whether it would be of sufficiently good quality to match up with the other bells of the carillon. You know that the lower you go the greater the chance is of getting an excellent quality of bell. I have a feeling that the two low bells in the Rockefeller and the University of Chicago carillons are not as useful as they might be if the quality of each of them were better.

I will see that we have the copy of the moving picture film ready for you. We have not made a copy of it as of this time but have kept your impression of it in the larger reel and if it isn't possible for Eastman to give us good copy in this short time, take our entire reel along to Lawrence with you. I showed the film recently for the meetings here in Ann Arbor of the North American Guild of Carillonneurs. They were delighted with the photography which you secured in the foundry. It was the first time that most of them had ever seen anything like it. I'll talk with Price about the matter and perhaps he will write you. In any case, I hope you can stop off on your way to Lawrence as well as on your return from there.

I understand that Mr. E. Deniston Taylor died recently. You are the only one, I believe, still with the firm who was there when I was. Am I right in assuming that the young Mr. Taylor whom I met, namely, Denison's nephew, was killed in the last war?

With warm personal greetings in which Mrs. Moore joins, I am,

As ever yours,

Earl V. Moore
Dean

EVM:lf

Figuring that everyone would enjoy seeing the film, I set about trying to track it down. Thanks to the kind help of Caitlin at the University of Michigan's Bentley Library, she located what she believes is the correct film! And not only that, it's already been digitized and is available on their website!

Click here for the direct link to the digitized film. And click here for the link to the catalogue record.

And you can also click here, for a photo of the UM bourdon being tuned that is online as part of Bok Tower Gardens' digital collections! I encourage you all to browse through the collections to enjoy other photos as well – and more will continue to be added in the future!

Enjoy!

And last, but not least. I wanted to share the news the LuAnn has accepted another position and is no longer at Bok Tower – but she’s not too far away and I hope to work with her on future projects! However, I’m very excited to that I have been promoted to her position (which is now called Collections Manager). So I am still available for reference/research inquiries and will still be bothering you with more mysteries, of course 😊

Thank you!

Mysteries from the Archives (part VI)

Posted on May 27, 2015 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, everyone!

It’s been a busy week here in the Anton Brees Carillon Library! Restoration work has begun on the tower, I am continuing to process the vertical files, and LuAnn is hard at work on a special digitization project (more on that later :-)).

This latest mystery comes from a set of photos we received, and includes photos of towers, bells, and carillonneurs. We believe this photo may have been misidentified, and are trying to determine its location. Any help that you could provide would be greatly appreciated!

#22)

The label on the photo reads “Carillon for the R.C. cathedral Los Angelos (sic) California”.

The inscription on the bell reads:

“Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam

Pope Pius XII Gloriously Reigning

Joseph Anthony O’Sullivan Archbishop of Kingston

J. Andrew O’Neill, Rector of this Cathedral

Gerald Hanley, James P. Sullivan, J.Reid Powell

Arthur Welsh, Joseph J. Brennan: Assistants”

Joseph Anthony O’Sullivan was the Archbishop of Kingston, Ontario, Canada from 1944 to 1966. Pope Pius XII served as Pope from 1939 to 1958.

If you can help to provide any information about this bell, please email me at jfogel@boktower.org.

Thank you so much!

Mysteries from the Archives (Part V)

Posted on May 19, 2015 by Jaime Fogel

Greetings, everyone!

LuAnn and I were hoping you guys could once again lend a hand to solve this Mystery from the Archives!

This image is part of a series of glass negatives from the William Gorham Rice collection (along with images of other European towers).
